

European Symposium on the conservation of historic fruit and kitchen gardens

From a one-day symposium to Eight on-line conferences and a final closing meeting in Chambord (June 23, 2022)

- October 15, 2020, Launching the symposium. Welcome words by Jean d’Haussonville, General Manager Domaine National de Chambord.
- December 17, 2020, Historic jewels and savoir-faire of fruit and kitchen gardens with a history. What are these jewels? How to conserve them?
- February 4, 2021, New functions of fruit and kitchen gardens with a history.
- Susan Campbell, founder Walled Kitchen Gardens Network, UK.
 - Alix de Saint Venant, Château de Valmer et Potagers de France, France.
 - And all the speakers of the symposium.
- Sarah Wain, West Dean, UK.
 - Ghislain d’Ursel, Château de Hex, Belgium.
 - Herman Van den Bossche et Marcel Vossen, Gaasbeek, Belgium.
 - Susan Campbell and Alix de Saint Venant.
- Jost Albert, Bavarian Administration Palaces, Parcs and Gardens, Germany.
 - Serge Conreur and Thierry Hay, Jardins de l’Abbaye Saint Georges de Boscherville, France.
 - Dominique Popihn, Château Colbert, France.
 - Stéphane Repas Mendes, Château de Prangins, Switzerland.
 - Susan Campbell and Alix de Saint Venant.

- April
8
2021,
- Excellence in conservation, horticulture, ecology and in economics
- Jim Buckland, West Dean, UK.
 - Henri Carvallo, Château de Villandry, France.
 - Chris et Karen Cronin, The Walled Gardens at Croome Court, UK.
 - Susan Campbell and Alix de Saint Venant.
- June
17
2021,
- The key role of gardeners in the conservation of historic fruit and kitchen gardens. Developing the competencies of gardeners.
- Elinor Davies, English Heritage, responsible for training and apprenticeship, UK.
 - Kelly Fowler et Gemma Sturges, Audley End, UK.
 - Willem Zieleman (Het Loo), The Netherlands.
 - Susan Campbell and Alix de Saint Venant.
- October
23
2021,
- Roles and responsibilities of the owners of historic fruit and kitchen gardens
- Olivier de Lorgeril – Château de la Bourbansais and president of Demeure Historique, France.
 - Jacques Soignon – Former general manager of the Parks, Gardens and Environment department of the city of Nantes et vice-president CCVS (Conservatoire des Collections Végétales Spécialisées), France.
 - Didier Moray – Garden of Mariemont, Administration of Wallonia, Belgium.
 - John Watkins – English Heritage, UK.
 - Susan Campbell and Alix de Saint Venant.
- February
3
2022,
- Two themes: How to lead a project of recreating a historic fruit and kitchen garden? The art of espalier fruit trees.
- Miranda Rock, Burghley House, UK.
 - Jim Arbury & Gerry Edwards, RHS, UK.
 - Alexandra et Olivier Debaisieux, Pépinières d'Enghien, Belgium.
 - Susan Campbell and Alix de Saint Venant.
- April
7
2022,
- The Lost Gardens of Heligan : Looking back on 30 years of success and looking at the projects for the future
- This session will bring a conclusion to the cycle of on-line conferences and will allow for a review of the major themes discussed since October 15 2020.
- Nicola Bradley, The Lost Gardens of Heligan, UK.
 - Alasdair Moore, The Lost Gardens of Heligan, UK.
 - Susan Campbell and Alix de Saint Venant.

June 23, 2022 : Closure of the on-line conferences cycle and symposium in Chambord.